

HABS. CAL. 324

HABS

CAL.

19- SANF

Andres Pico House
10940 Sepulveda Blvd,
San Fernando, Los Angeles,
Los Angeles County, California.

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of California. #3.

Historic American Buildings Survey
Henry F. Withey, District Officer
407 So. Western Avenue,
Los Angeles, California.

HABS. CAL. 324
HABS
CAL
19- SANF
1-

ANDRES PICO HOUSE
10940 Sepulveda Blvd,
San Fernando, Los Angeles,
Los Angeles County, California.

Owner: N. R. Harrington

Date of erection: Previous to 1873.

Architect:

Builder:

Present condition: Occupied and well preserved. When in 1930 the present owner purchased the property the house had been abandoned many years and was in much ruined condition. They immediately restored the building to as near the original design and character as photographs of the structure would permit.

Number of stories: Two

Materials of construction: Field stone foundation, sun dried adobe brick walls plastered both sides, ground floor of tile, 2nd floor and roof of wood frame, wood shake roof, all wood work stained brown, plaster white washed.

Other existing records: Description and photographs in article entitled "In Pursuit of Vanished Days" by Marion Parks, 1928. Annual Publication of Historical Society of Southern California. "History of San Diego by Wm. E. Smythe, page 173.

Additional Data: This was the home at one time of Andres Pico, brother to Governor Pio Pico, active in Political and military affairs during 1830-1850.

March 1, 1937

TW 7/16/37